

Certificate of Participation

This is to certify that has made the 'Small Furry' Promise, with the aim of providing high levels of care to rabbits and other 'small furrries'. May 2012

- ✓ This practice promises to recognise rabbits as very important pets.
- ✓ This practice promises that at least one individual from our healthcare team will undertake to complete at least one 'small furry'-specific training course per year.
- ✓ This practice promises to 'think rabbit' when making any changes to the layout, design or protocols within the practice.
- ✓ This practice promises to ensure we have suitable food and equipment available in the event that we have to hospitalise a rabbit.
- ✓ This practice promises to 'think rabbit' when stocking our pharmacy.

